

Win a fabulous painting valued at $450 – exclusive to Pittwater Life readers!

Artist Karen
Hick has created this painting on watercolour paper using paraffin wax and watercolours.

Lillies. 100x80cm.

This gives the painting a batik style contemporary effect while creating a translucent impression on the flowers. The painting has been framed by Peninsula Reflections, Warriewood.

★ WINNER: The January Artist Trail giveaway of a term class with Clareville artist Meredith Rasdall was won by Margaret McKinnon of Narrabeen who said "That's fantastic! My new year's resolution was to do a class. I'm thrilled to bits!"

The Pittwater Artists Trail covers 29 artists' studios which members of the public can visit to talk to the artists, see their work in progress and if they wish buy original paintings, sculptures, ceramics and more. Plan a day out on the Trail any day or weekend.
Go to the website or pick up a copy of the catalogue at your local coffee shop, restaurant or salon.
The artists are listed by phone and Pittwater Life continues as media partner of Pittwater Artist Trail, featuring another art give away. This month we feature:

Karen Hick (see left) enjoys using intricate technique oil, acrylic and watercolour paintings. Inspired by an accomplished photographer, Karen merges the arts by taking extraordinary photos and then diffu-into abstract paintings whose mood, colour and li-essence gleam through in a subtle and harmonious Karen's studio and home also features fellow pair Bartnitzky and talented ceramicist Katarina Wells
